MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS*New Delhi, the 5th December 1953*

S.R.O. 2242.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 and, in relation to persons serving in the Indian Audit and Accounts Department, by clause (5) of article 148 of the Constitution, the President, after consultation with the Comptroller and Auditor-General as regards the above-mentioned persons, hereby makes the following rules, namely:—

1. (1) These rules may be called the Central Civil Services (Safeguarding of National Security) Rules, 1953,

(2) The Civil Services (Safeguarding of National Security) Rules, 1949, are hereby cancelled.

(3) These rules apply to all persons serving in connection with the affairs of the Union, but shall not apply to.....

- (i) railway servants as defined in section 3 of the Indian Railways Act, 1890;
- (ii) persons holding posts in the Railway Board who are subject to the Railway Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules; and
- (iii) other persons holding posts under the administrative control of the Railway Board or of the Financial Commissioner of Railways.

2. In these rules,—

(a) "Government servant" means any person to whom these rules apply;

(b) "head of a department" means any authority who is the head of a department for the purposes of the Supplementary Rules; and

(c) "the competent authority" means—

(i) in relation to a Government servant appointed by the head of a department or by an authority subordinate to the head of a department, the head of the department; and

(ii) in relation to any other Government servant, the President.

3. Where the President is of opinion that a Government servant is engaged in or is reasonably suspected to be engaged in subversive activities or is associated with others in subversive activities and that his retention in the public service is on that account prejudicial to national security, the President may make an order compulsorily retiring such Government servant from service.

4. Before an order under rule 3 is made—

(a) the competent authority shall by notice in writing inform the Government servant of the action proposed to be taken in regard to him, and give him an opportunity to make to the President, within such period as may be specified in the notice, representation in writing against that action; and

(b) the President shall take into consideration the representation, if any, so made by him.

5. Where action under these Rules is proposed to be taken in regard to a Government servant, the competent authority shall place the Government servant under suspension:

Provided that if the Government servant so wishes, the competent authority shall, before placing him under suspension, permit him to proceed on such leave as may then be admissible to him.

6. Nothing contained in Parts XII and XIII of the Civil Services (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules shall apply to or in respect of any action taken or proposed to be taken under these rules.

7. It shall not be necessary for the President to consult the Union Public Service Commission in respect of any order passed under these rules.

8. Any person compulsorily retired from service under rule 3 shall be entitled to such compensation pension, gratuity or provident fund benefits as would have been admissible to him under the rules applicable to his service or post on the date of such retirement if he had been discharged from service due to the abolition of his post without any alternative suitable employment being provided.
